

Rep. Jared Huffman to Discuss the Green New Deal and Climate Change Priorities

Arcata, CA – Humboldt State University invites the public to a community conversation with Congressman Jared Huffman to discuss the Green New Deal and climate change priorities 5:45-6:45 p.m., Tuesday, April 16 in the Native American Forum (Behavioral & Soc. Sciences Building [BSS 162] on Union Street).

This event, sponsored by HSU's College of Professional Studies, is free to the public. Doors open at 5:15pm. Seating is limited and first-come, first-served.

Congressman Huffman will discuss the Green New Deal proposal - what it includes, what it doesn't, and how we can take meaningful steps toward addressing climate change and economic inequality. As Vice-Ranking Member of the Natural Resources Committee, Ranking Democrat on the Water, Power, and Oceans Subcommittee, and Member of the House Select Committee on the Climate Crisis, Huffman is a leader on natural resource and climate issues in Congress.

The College of Professional Studies is committed to providing interdisciplinary liberal arts education and preparation for the profession so our graduates can positively contribute to the human condition, be outstanding leaders in their profession and community, and share a powerful commitment to social, economic, and environmental justice.
